Dear General Walters:

On behalf of the Defense Intelligence School, I would like to express my thanks for the outstanding presentation delivered by you to our students in the National Senior Intelligence Course on 11 February 1975. Your dynamic presentation on "The National Security Structure and Functions of the DCI" was extremely well received and highly commended by the class and faculty alike.

The dynamic approach to intelligence of someone in your position and the candidness with which you answered the questions posed have been the topic of conversation since your appearance.

Your willingness to personally support the Defense Intelligence School has been a major contribution to our teaching mission. We are sincerely appreciative of your support and assistance.

Sincerely,

W. J. FURNAS

Dear General Walters:

The Defense Intelligence School cordially invites you, as the Keynote Speaker, to address the students of the National Senior Intelligence Course on the topic of "The National Security Structure and the Functions of the DCI". The presentation is scheduled for Tuesday, 11 February 1975 from 0830 to 1020 hours in Building T-4, Naval District Washington, Anacostia Annex, Washington, D.C. Your personal candid comments concerning the national security structure and the role of the DCI, his responsibilities and policies, as well as problem areas and probable future developments within the National Intelligence Community will be of extreme relevance and value to our Senior students. Subsequent instruction will examine the national structure in detail.

The class will be comprised of approximately 40 students, all professional intelligence officers, in the grades O-5/GS-13 and above, representing the military services, CIA, NSA and DIA. All students will possess SI/SAO access.

Your previous discussions with our Senior students are remembered as being one of the course highlights. We sincerely hope that your schedule will permit your personal acceptance of this invitation.

Lieutenant Commander Burrell McKelvain, USN, 433-2371/2625 will coordinate your return visit to the School and is available for any assistance or further information you may desire.

Sincerely,

W. J. Furnas
